BRAND NAME

FLOAT

TAGLINE

Money that thinks ahead
Stay ahead of your spending.

ONE-LINER

Float creates predictive money management for early-career professionals so they can stay organized and anxiety-free about their finances.

MISSION

We transform financial anxiety into financial clarity through intelligent automation. We predict what's coming before it hits your account, organize spending in real time, and deliver guidance that actually makes sense. We believe managing money should feel intuitive, not intimidating.

VISION

A world where young professionals never experience that sinking feeling of financial surprise. Where your money app anticipates your needs and keeps you confidently ahead of your financial reality.

BRAND PERSONA

The Financial Forecaster

A thoughtful advisor who speaks plainly about complex financial realities. They anticipate problems before they happen and offer solutions with quiet confidence. Never condescending, always one step ahead, they make financial planning feel less like homework and more like having a really smart friend.

BRAND VOICE

Calm + confident. Minimal but not sterile.
Warm but not overly familiar.

Conversational	Authoritative
Calm	Energetic
Calm	Energetic
Traditional	Innovative

Predictive Clarity

Calm confidence when explaining what's coming next in your financial picture.

"Your rent hits in three days, but that freelance payment should clear tomorrow morning."

Reassuring Innovation

Forward-thinking guidance that feels supportive rather than overwhelming.

"We're redesigning how money apps think about your future, not just your past."

Practical Wisdom

Straightforward advice that acknowledges real-world financial complexities.

"Your irregular income doesn't have to mean irregular stress about money."

BRAND VALUES

TRANSPARENCY
Your money's story told clearly.

EMPOWERMENT
Tools that make you financially confident.

TRUST
Reliable predictions you can count on.

INNOVATION
Money management that thinks differently.

SIMPLICITY
Complex finances made refreshingly clear.

MESSAGING

Designed for real life: Elevated essentials that reduce friction and make everyday feel smoother.

Warm minimalism, crafted: Architectural restraint + tactile materials—quiet luxury you can feel.

Ritual meets innovation: Where thoughtful design and craftsmanship coexist—form and function inseparable.

SOCIAL CAPTION

"Traditional banking apps show you what happened to your money last week. Float shows you what's happening to your money next week. We predict your upcoming expenses, organize your spending automatically, and give you guidance before you need it. Because staying ahead of your finances feels a lot better than constantly playing catch-up."

BRAND PILLARS

Predictive Intelligence

Float doesn't just track where your money went—it shows you where it's going. Our algorithms analyze your patterns and upcoming commitments to give you a clear picture of your financial future. No more surprise overdrafts or panic about whether you can afford that dinner out.

Real-Time Organization

Your financial life gets automatically sorted into categories that actually make sense for how you live and spend. Every transaction finds its place instantly, creating order from the chaos of modern money management without any manual effort from you.

Proactive Guidance

Instead of waiting for you to ask questions, Float anticipates what you need to know and when you need to know it. Gentle nudges, smart suggestions, and timely insights keep you ahead of your money rather than constantly catching up to it.
